Our fees are mainly agreed or fixed, however where billed by the hour, it is calculated using an hourly rate, which is set according to our fee earners' knowledge and experience.

Our fixed price service provides certainty of costs throughout the application or appeal. We will undertake whatever work is required to give your application/appeal the best chance of success.

Our fixed fees do not include Home Office or Tribunal fees and fees for third party assistance such as interpreters and independent experts.

Our current hourly rates range from £100 to £250, but we are happy to discuss our fees directly with you to give a closer estimate of the likely costs bearing in mind your individual circumstances, including the level and complexity of your case as well as the level of service that you require.

We do not currently offer a no win/ no charge arrangements or other contingency fee or damage-based arrangement.
